

That second epistle, beloved, I have written to you, in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance. That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of our Lord Jesus Christ of the Lord and Saviour: Knowing this first, that soon shall come in the last days

What manner of persons ought ye to be?

ye shall see the day coming as a thief in the night, in the which the heavens shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.
Wherefore, beloved, seeing that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for and hastening unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?
Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of Him in peace, without spot, and blameless.
And when such things shall begin to come, then shall the ungodly, and unbelievers, and ungodly, shall be punished, as they are, and shall be punished, as they are, and shall be punished, as they are.
Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of Him in peace, without spot, and blameless.
And when such things shall begin to come, then shall the ungodly, and unbelievers, and ungodly, shall be punished, as they are, and shall be punished, as they are, and shall be punished, as they are.
Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of Him in peace, without spot, and blameless.
